

A little Christmas poem ...

The trick is to remember that if Christmas seems papered over with boxes, toys,
too many turkeys;

there are always cattle warming the night, donkeys with comforting winter coats, sheep and shepherds companionable under the stars, wise men, hope, enlightenment.

Caroline Carver