

POETRY AT WARE ARTS CENTRE

"A first-class gig" – Carol Ann Duffy

At 8 pm, usually on the first Friday of the month at Ware Arts Centre, Kibes Lane, Ware, Herts.

EVENTS Jan 2018 – Apr 2018

- Jan 5 Caroline Price & Clive Eastwood – In addition to being a poet, Caroline Price is also a professional musician. She has published three collections – one of them with Rockingham – and won a number of poetry prizes, among them The Frogmore which she is the only person to have won three times.
- Clive Eastwood comes originally from Lancashire and has one collection to his name. Together with Caroline he was active in the Kent & Sussex Poetry Society for many years until their recent retirement to Suffolk.
- Feb 2 Stuart Handysides, Susan Mackervoy, & Nicky Phillips – Three of our own poets share the guest spot tonight. Well known to all regulars, they need no introduction here.
- Mar 2 To be confirmed.
- Apr 6 An April Shower – of poems, that is, (not a reference to the poets!) Our now-customary April open-mic. evening, allowing us to read our work to each other at slightly greater length than time usually permits. Two poems each (3 if they're really short) and no epics, please!

Plus readings from local poets, news of competitions and other poetry events, and refreshments.

Admission £4.00 (concessions £2.50)

Further information: John Godfrey (01462 431098)
or Frances Wilson (01992 503147)